

COVID19

The Old Kings Head holds the health, safety & well-being of our customers and staff with the up-most importance.

In light of the Government issued advice on Monday 16th March, we regretfully inform you that we will be temporarily closed until further notice.

We thank you for continued loyalty, cooperation and patience at this difficult time and wish you all to be cautious, stay safe and follow our social channels for further updates on our reopening and events.

Love Caroline, Carly & the team
